Pilgrims Festival 2018 – Babworth Art Exhibition

Saturday 17th & Sunday 18th November 2018

This year's Pilgrims Art Exhibition will be on Saturday 17th and Sunday 18th November. This will be the third year that Babworth Church has held the Pilgrims Art Exhibition, which is part of the Pilgrims Festival commemorating the Mayflower Pilgrim Families' journey to the New World, as part of the countdown to 2020, the 400th anniversary.

All work on display in Babworth Church has been inspired by the Separatist and Mayflower Pilgrims story. Any artists may provide their work which should be delivered to Babworth Church on Friday 16th November between 2.00pm and 4.00pm with a short identifying summary. The Art Exhibition will be open to the public from 10.00am to 4.00pm on Saturday 17th November and between 12.00noon and 4.00pm on Sunday 18th November. Entry to the event is free, refreshments are available for a small charge, and donations to the Church are always welcome. There will be an artist and embroiderer working during the weekend so you can see how it is done!

On Saturday 17th November at 11.00am, local author and historian, Adrian Gray will be giving a talk about the Separatists during the Art Exhibition in Babworth Church. This will include information about Richard Bernard, Vicar of Worksop Priory, and co-collaborator with the Separatists – find out Worksop's connection with New England's foundations.

Bassetlaw Christian Heritage is organising this year's activities in Bassetlaw, North Nottinghamshire, working as part of the Pilgrim Roots consortium, supported by the Diocese of Southwell & Nottingham.

Pilgrims Festival Music Events

At Worksop Priory, there will be two music events, each starting at 7.00pm, with a talk about the Priory and including a mince pie and mulled wine (each event is £10pp on entry). On Monday 19th November, medieval harpist Leah Stuttard will perform "Sacred Fragments", from the 13th and 14th centuries, and on Friday 23rd November, Doncaster Waites will play music from the streets at the time of the Mayflower Pilgrims.

There are also parade and performance events at Bawtry on 18th, at Retford on 20th, at Gainsborough on 21st, and at Scrooby on 22nd November.

To find out more about the story, The Hub in Churchgate, Retford, has a Pilgrims Museum that contains an overview of the Mayflower Pilgrims and their roots in Bassetlaw, North Nottinghamshire (adults £2.50, up to 3 accompanied children free).
