'Summer Sundays on the Square'

Square Deal – Sunday 28th July 10am – 4pm

Community Groups and Charities, plus local musicians including Jon Rogers and The Idle River Boys

Square Deal on Sunday 28th July 2019 is the next event in the 'Summer Sundays on the Square' series. Come along and support your local charities and community groups – there will be raffles, games, information etc. – why not make a day of it and have lunch or tea at one of Retford's great cafés and restaurants?

Local musicians will be on stage in Retford Market Square throughout the day – Jon Rogers and the Idle River Boys will be there, plus others to be announced.

The Pilgrim Embroiderers will be back in Spencer's on the Square – they would love to meet you and tell you about their work – put in a stitch – be part of history – buy an embroidery card, they are great value and all contributions go towards the cost of framing and finishing their work.

Bassetlaw Hospice will be there, along with the Royal British Legion, Retford Lions, Bassetlaw District Council, Bark (Berwick Animal Rescue Kennels) and many others. It is not too late - to book a stall, which is free this year, please contact Peter Hargreaves at Retford Markets Team (peter.hargreaves@bassetlaw.gov.uk or 07903 560732).

The three 'Summer Sundays on the Square' events, Square Fete, Square Wheels and Square Deal are organised by Retford Business Forum, with support from North Notts BID and Bassetlaw District Council.

Forthcoming events planned for 2019 in Retford are: Archbishop of York at St Swithun's Parish Church on 12th September; Heritage Open Day on 14th September; Pilgrims Festival between 22nd and 28th November; and Christmas Market on 1st December.
